

UNIVERSITÄT BAYREUTH

INTERNATIONAL OFFICE

Multiple Atlantics - Making and transforming the Atlantic World

Bernried, Lake Starnberg, Upper Bavaria

23-26 August 2019

23 August 2019

2:30pm welcome (Susanne Lachenicht (Bayreuth))

2:45-5:45pm Atlantic Worlds and Slavery I, chair: Trevor Burnard (Melbourne)

James Almeida (Harvard): Minting Slavery: Labor and Race in Potosí, 1570-1800, tutor: Elodie Peyrol-Kleiber (Poitiers)

Annika Bärwald (Bremen): Ports of Non-White Mobility: African, Asian, and American Laborers in Hamburg and Altona, 1750-1840, tutor: Andrew Jackson O'Shaughnessy (Monticello/VA)

Liana-Beatrice Valerio (Warwick): Emotional Worlds of the Slave-Holding Atlantic, tutor: Gesa Mackenthun (Rostock)

6pm dinner

7pm Keynote: Nicholas Canny (NUI Galway): Imagining Ireland's Pasts

24 August 2019

9-11am Atlantic Worlds and Slavery II, chair: Lauric Henneton (Versailles – Saint Quentin)

Elodie Peyrol-Kleiber (Poitiers): Regulations of unfree labor systems in the British and French Atlantics, 17th-18th centuries

Michael Bailey (Boston College): Connecting & Transgressing the Atlantic World(s): Irish Catholics, Slavery, & Empire, tutor: Nicholas Canny (NUI Galway)

11-12am Atlantic Worlds and Slavery III, chair: Andrew Jackson O'Shaughnessy (Monticello/VA)

Trevor Burnard (Melbourne): 'A Pack of Knaves': The Royal African Company, The Development of the Plantation Economy and the Benefits of Monopoly, 1672-1708

12noon-1pm lunch

2-4:30pm Atlantic Worlds – Commerce and Trade, chair: Emma Hart (St. Andrews)

Toby Nash (Melbourne): Imperial Nerve Centres: Fear and Disorder on the Waterfront in French and British America, tutor: Lauric Henneton (Versailles – Saint Quentin)

coffee

Randal Grant Kleiser (Columbia University): Emulating Empires: The Inter-Imperial Influences on the Free Port System in the West Indies, tutor: Emma Hart (St. Andrews)

4:30-5:30pm Native American Worlds, chair: Gesa Mackenthun (Rostock)

Evan Haefeli (TAMU): The Delaware as Women? New Perspectives on an old Dilemma in Native American History

6pm dinner

25 August 2019

9-11am Atlantic History and Social Sciences, chair: Susanne Lachenicht (Bayreuth)

Agatha Bloch (Warsaw): The Portuguese Empire in the context of Social Network Analysis – the early modern interconnected Atlantic World, tutor: Bartolomé Yun Casalilla (Sevilla)

Emma Hart (St. Andrews): Divided? The Long History of America's Urban-Rural Divide in Transnational Perspective

12noon lunch

2pm excursion

26 August 2019

9-11am Atlantic History – Becoming America, chair: Nicholas Canny (Galway, Ireland)

Peter R. Pellizzari (Harvard): A Struggle for Empire: Resistance and Reform in the British Atlantic World, 1760-1778, tutor: Trevor Burnard (Melbourne)

Andrew Jackson O'Shaughnessy (Monticello/VA): 'The Illimitable Freedom of the Human Mind:' Thomas Jefferson's Idea of a University

12noon lunch

13pm departure